

Day Trips and Special Events

Unless noted, these events are for adult participants. Day Trip tuition includes meals, transportation, and all admissions. Day Trip coach departs from the circle by the Fine Arts and Humanities buildings. All times are approximate.

Coffee Concert

At Powell Symphony Hall SPI 173-40

Enjoy coffee and doughnuts, a lecture by St. Louis Symphony conductor David Robertson, and Beethoven's Fifth followed by lunch in the Grand Center District. Last date to cancel is Friday, Jan. 15.

Fri., Jan. 29, 8:15a-3p, Fee: $55

Hop and Shop

For Treasures Close to Home SPI 172-40

The ultimate in recycling! Visit an assortment of consignment shops that specialize in decor items, furniture, and/or antiques. Owners will share "tips of the trade." Lunch at Aggie's Tea Room. Last date to cancel is Thursday, Feb. 18.

Thurs., Feb. 25, 9:30a-3:30p, Fee: $39

Coffee Concert Series

At the Sheldon Concert Hall SPI 174-40

Join a trio of musicians: trumpeter Bob Caccarini, acclaimed pianist Pat Joyce, and soulful vocalist Charles Glenn perform jazz as they perform pre-St. Patrick's Day favorites! Lunch and afternoon activities are included. Last date to cancel is Wednesday, Feb. 24.

Wed., March 10, 8a-3:30p, Fee: $59

The Fantasticks

At the Repertory Theatre SPI 175-40

A must-see, Tony Award winning play that appears in the Guinness Book of Records as the world's longest-running musical. Lunch at Cyrano's, then the musical, followed by a post-performance discussion with cast and staff members. Last date to cancel is Friday, March 5.

Wed., April 7, 10:30a-5:30p, Fee: $69

26th Annual Quilt Show – Paducah, Kentucky

SPI 181-40

Spend the day perusing hundreds of artistic quilts and stories, a merchant mall with over 400 vendor booths, classes, lectures, and special events. Transportation, admittance to Quilt Show, dinner, and continental breakfast included. Last date to cancel is Friday, April 9.

Fri., April 23, 5:15a-10:30p, Fee: $85

Uncork Spring on the

Southern Illinois Wine Trail SPI 169-40

Visit five unique wineries as we taste along the Shawnee Hills Wine Trail ending with dinner at the historic Giant City Lodge in the heart of Giant City Park. The next morning, travel back to the park before heading to the last winery and lunch. Opportunities to picnic, hike, shop at a winery, and enjoy wine tasting at each. Last date to cancels is Thursday, April 15.

Thur.-Fri., April 29-30, 7:45a-4:30p

Fee: $225 per person DBL, $250 per person SNG

May Flowers in

St. Louis City Garden SPI 176-40

Stroll through the newest green addition to the cityscape in downtown St. Louis. Historian Melanie Harvey will take you on a walking tour through the revitalized Garment District on Washington Avenue with cafés, art galleries, boutiques, and lofts. Tour a loft as well. Last date to cancel is Tuesday, May 4.

Tues., May 18, 8:30a-3:30p, Fee: $55

Lunch 'n Theater

"A Raisin in the Sun" SPI 170-40

A Raisin in the Sun shows the tragic impact of American history on a black family residing in Chicago in the 1950's. Winner of the New York Drama Critics' Award for Best American Play of 1959, it is the first play by an African-American female playwright to open on Broadway. Last date to cancel is Thursday, Feb. 18.

Thurs., March 4, 9:30a-1:30p, Fee: $20

"Isn't It Romantic"

SPI 171-40

A sentimental comedy that follows the post-college careers of two former classmates, Julia Blumberg and Harriet Cornwall. The play explores the parallel stories of these two very different women. Contains mature language and content. Last date to cancel is Thursday, April 8.

Thurs., April 22, 9:30a-1:30p, Fee: $20