Welcome summer STUDENTS

#SCCSocial

Maria Pizzo, whose roles on campus included president of SCC's Phi Beta Lambda (PBL), vice president of Student Senate, member of Phi Theta Kappa International Honor Society, member of Students for Sensible Drug Policy and a blogger at stchas.edu/blogs, was one of the many students who graduated last month in SCC's largest graduating class.

"My absolute favorite part about SCC is all of the student activities and opportunities on campus," said Maria. "There are so many resources on campus, and every single one of them is designed to help students succeed."

Maria was a part of SCC's PBL team that was recognized at the state and national level in Business Ethics category in 2014. In 2015, her PBL team gained state recognition in Business Ethics, and she placed fourth individually in the Sales Presentation category. Maria was also one of 20 students in the nation to receive an National Leadership Conference scholarship, courtesy of PBL.

Maria was elected as Missouri PBL State President for the 2015/16 school year and received the Executive Level CMAP (Career and Membership Achievement Program) Award.

"I've been able to learn from some extremely knowledgeable professors, something you don't get just anywhere," she said.

Now that her time at SCC is done, Maria is transferring to Southeast Missouri State University to double major in business administration and philosophy and earn a minor in entrepreneurship. Her goal is to earn a graduate degree.

Maria aspires to become a network marketing professional and to help inspire healthy living around the world.
