

Mid Rivers Review

Literary Journal of St. Charles Community College Certification and Release/Author Bio

With this release, the undersigned grants to Mid Rivers Review one-time publication rights to the entry/entries noted below and agrees to the following:

- 1) Mid Rivers Review does not pay for literary or graphic contributions. Entrants whose work is selected will receive two complimentary copies of the journal.
- 2) Submissions to Mid Rivers Review will not be returned.
- 3) Work submitted is original and has never been published.
- 4) Publication will include the contributor's work in a free PDF copy on SCC websites and at least one e-book format such as Kindle or iBooks.
- 5) St. Charles Community College and the Editor are released from any claims and liability relating to said submissions.

Signature _____ Date _____

Name (print clearly):
Address (street, city, state, zip)

Telephone (day and evening, please):

Email:

Note: It's best to include a long-term email address; a student's email address may change or be inactive by the time of MRR's publication.

Entry Title(s) and genre(s):

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

[continued on page 2]

Please write a brief bio (3-4 lines) about yourself and return with this permission form to:

Michael Kuelker – Editor – Mid Rivers Review
St. Charles Community College
Department of English – HUM 203
4601 Mid Rivers Mall Drive
Cottleville, MO 63376

Or email to mkuelker@stchas.edu with the subject line Mid Rivers Review. If you email this form, please scan it with your original signature and then drop off or mail the original at your convenience.

Thank you for submitting your creative work to Mid Rivers Review.